Subject: KCRW segment on Veronica art installation

Hi Ed,

I work with Frances Anderton on KCRW's Design and Architecture. We're planning a segment to air tomorrow about the dismantling last week of Sheila Klein's art installation Vermonica, which has been removed and relocated to the lawn of the Bureau of Street Lighting field office, a couple of blocks away.

Can you explain why it was moved? We could chat by phone in the next hour or tomorrow before 2 pm.

Thanks,
Avishay
